1. The meeting of the Social Democratic Parties from Central Europe is scheduled for 7 December 1946 in Prague. It will be attended by delegations from the following countries: Austria, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia.
2. The main topics of discussion will center around economic questions and methods for strengthening the Social Democratic movement in the respective countries. Border disputes and other political difficulties between any two of the countries represented will not be discussed in plenary but in private sessions with only representatives of the countries involved in attendance. Such discussions will take place mainly between Czechs and Hungarians on the problem of population exchange.
